Construction Sites Are Not Playgrounds

Construction and renovation projects are nothing new to most community residents as drivers are detoured around obstacles and traffic is rerouted. However, many children view construction sites as fascinating places to explore and play in. They don't understand that these sites are far from safe and are almost always dangerous. Building sites act like magnets to children who don't perceive the inherent dangers. It is not enough to say no to a child, they need to have the risks explained to them so they understand.

There have been numerous instances of children experiencing serious injuries and even being killed in construction-related incidents. In England earlier this year, a two year-old child was killed outside a construction site. Police investigators believe that a concrete retaining wall fell over and crushed the child.

Let's make it clear to the children – do not play around these construction sites, do not ride bikes through them and do not use them as improvised skateboard parks. Construction sites have many hidden dangers that children do not realize until it is too late. Construction sites are closed to all community members at all times.

The 56th Annual Air Force Ball is Sept. 13, 6 p.m. in the Sindelfingen Stadthalle. Tops in Blue will provide this year's entertainment.

Ticket prices are 45 Euro for pay grades O-4/GS-13 and above; 35 Euro for pay grades E-7 through O-3 and GS-7 through GS-12; 20 Euro for pay grades E-4 through E-6; 10 Euro for pay grades E-1 through E-3/GS-6 and below; and 50 Euro for all other guests.

Appropriate military uniform is mess dress or service equivalent and black tie for civilians. For tickets see unit representatives, call 430-7160/civ. 0711-680-7160 or e-mail lonelyh@eucom.mil.

Swimming Safety Remains Important

Every accident is a tragedy, but the loss cuts even deeper when it involves a child. So far this summer, in USAREUR, one child has drowned and one is in very critical condition after nearly drowning. Both children were on organized outings and under supervision but still the unthinkable happened.

Before sending a child on a sponsored outing, parents should ensure the sponsoring organization has sound risk-management procedures and that these procedures will be used before the organization allows the child to enter the water. Ask tough questions.

Children can drown as easily in the middle of a crowded public pool as at a remote location and it takes only a few seconds for them to get into trouble. The single biggest risk-reduction measure is vigilance.

Swimming safety is not limited to outings. At home, child pools are popular and often found in housing areas. An accessible, unattended pool is dangerous, even if the pool holds only a little water. Play it safe. When a pool is not in use, drain it and put it away.

PCS/Pre-separation Briefing Planned

The next permanent change of station and pre-separation briefing is Sept. 17, 1 p.m. on Patch Barracks, building 2318, room 4. Service members from all branches and civilians departing within the next five months should attend.

Clearance information provided will involve housing, medical, dental, transportation, vehicle registration, MP Customs, claims and Army Community Service. Army personnel will also receive briefings on personnel and finance issues.

All separating Army personnel are required to attend this briefing to receive pre-separation information. Pre-registration is required. For more info call 430-4064/civ. 0711-680-4064.

Military Blood Program Seeks Type O

The Armed Services Blood Program needs donors with Type O blood to support ongoing military operations worldwide and to replenish the military's blood reserves. Having blood when and where it is needed is key to medical readiness.

Type O donors are especially important to readiness because their blood can be transfused safely to persons of all blood types. For more info on donating blood or sponsoring a blood drive call Bob Kirzner at 486-6497/civ. 06371-866-497.

IACS Registration Still Mandatory

All U.S. identification cardholders and installation pass holders and applicants in U.S. Army, Europe, must register in the Installation Access Control System. Sponsors do not need to be present for registration of family members, but ID cards are required.

Registration hours are Mondays to Fridays, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Saturdays, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Installation Access Control Office, building 2307, Patch Barracks. For more info call 430-4256/civ. 0711-680-4256.

Civilian Fitness Program Approved

The Civilian Fitness program, a Department of Army initiative, encourages Army civilians to engage in a regular exercise program. Commanders and supervisors may approve three one-hour exercise sessions each week during normal work hours.

The goal is to initiate and maintain healthy behavioral changes through assessments and to develop an exercise/nutrition program appropriate for each participant's lifestyle. For more info call Michelle Saylor at 430-4073/civ. 0711-680-4073 or e-mail saylorm@6asg.army.mil.

Stress School Bus Safety To Youth

Going to and from the bus stop is the riskiest part of riding school buses in Europe, according to school officials. Riding a school bus in Europe is a lot different than in the U. S. One of the key differences is that off-post traffic does not stop for loading and unloading school buses.

There are several important actions parents can take to ensure their children are ready to ride the school bus safely. These actions include becoming familiar with their children's route to and from the bus stop; reminding children to walk and not run to the bus stop; stressing good behavior on the bus; teaching children not to cross the street in front of or behind a bus; and reporting safety concerns immediately to the school transportation office.

SERVICES

Program Assists Civilian Employees

The Army Substance Abuse Program office, located in Panzer Kaserne, building 2948, provides Civilian Employee Assistance Program services to civilian employees in the Stuttgart community. The program provides professional and confidential screening and referral services for various personal problems.

The goal is to restore an employee experiencing personal problems to a full personal and productive life. Referral to professional human services providers can be made to providers either in the military community or on the local economy. For more info call Jeffrey Whitesell, 431-2743/civ. 07031-15-743.

RB Thrift Shop Holds Sale

Robinson Barracks Thrift Shop is no longer accepting summer clothing and yard toys for consignment. The shop has a nice selection of bedding, kitchen items, knick-knacks, older German collectibles and more.

Now is an ideal time to consign those no-longer-needed items. Especially needed are transformers of all sizes, modern 220-volt household items, DVDs, videos, CDs, Halloween costumes, jewelry, a modern sink-high refrigerator and freezer, 220-volt German washing machine and dryer, multi-system TV, CD player and a DVD player.

Donations are always needed and greatly appreciated. Drop off inside building 196 entrances day or night.

The shop is open Fridays and Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Consignments are accepted until 1 p.m. Phone ahead before bringing larger items. For more info call 0711-854-242.

Heidelberg Hosts Retiree Open House

Retirees can take advantage of many services offered during USAREUR's 23rd Annual Retiree Open House at Heidelberg's Patrick Henry Village Pavilion Sept. 20, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Representatives will help with problems involving the Survivor Benefit Plan, personnel and medical records, ID cards and pay matters. Additionally, general dentistry and health care services will be able.
